Legacy Society Awards

Two residents among those honored at 14th annual banquet

Submitted by Becky Fitzgerald
Hilton. Hupe. Hawley.
Current Meadowlark Hills resident Evelyn Hawley has had only one last initial since the day she was born in 1923, and learning about her career and knowing her contributions at Meadowlark Hills, other h-words and phrases come to mind: helpful, hard-working, high standards, hospitable.

Evelyn, who worked for 26 years in Physical Facilities at Kansas State University and who has donated time and money to various Meadowlark Hills projects, was honored Monday, May 23, at the 14th annual LegacySociety Banquet sponsored by Meadowlark Hills Foundation.

She was presented the 2016 Legacy Award by Board of Directors president and master of ceremonies Terry Arthur. The award recognizes persons who have given a lifetime of public service, financial contributions and volunteer efforts to the Meadowlark Hills community.

Evelyn and her late husband, Bob Hawley, gave two major gifts in 2007 and 2008 to the Our Home, Our Health, Our Future capital campaign, one of which supported the creation of Kansas Room Pub & Lounge. Another major gift in 2009 prompted construction of a sidewalk on Meadowlark Road, extending from Meadowlark Valley to Kimball Ave.

Jokes of the Week

What did the judge say to the dentist?
Do you swear to pull the tooth, the whole tooth and nothing but the tooth?

What do you get if you cross a football player with a pay phone?

A wide receiver.

What do you call a cow that eats your grass?

A lawn moo-er.

How do they serve smart hamburgers? On honor rolls.

Why do fish live in salt water? Because pepper makes them sneeze.

Knock, knock. Who's there? Arfur. Arfur who? Arfur got!

What do you get when you cross a piece of paper with scissors?

Confetti.

Your Life Story Writing Class

Consider what Tom Brokaw writes in his book "An Album of Memories, Personal Histories from the Greatest Generation":

"Members of that generation, characteristically, are modest and yet quietly proud of what they have achieved individually and collectively, and proud also to have had their accomplishments recognized at this stage of their lives. In turn, their children and grandchildren tell me that they are reexamining their own lives and values, measuring them against the legacy of their parents and grandparents. It is a kind of symbolic effect in which the generations, by interacting, are giving new meaning to their lives.

It was a common trait of the Greatest Generation not to discuss the difficult times and hose those times shapes their lives, but now, in their twilight years, more and ,ore members of that remarkable group of men and women are determined to share their experiences,. I have come to realize that there are still so many stories to be told..."

The Meadowlark Hills Prairie Star Life Story Class meets in the Living Room on the first, third and fifth Tuesdays of each month for one hour to discuss, write and then, if wanting to, read to the class whatever we have chosen to write. Always, it is an enjoyable part of the class. Cathy Hedge is an excellent teacher to help motivate class members to write for the next generation.

Manhatters Ladies Luncheon

Thursday, June 9, at 12:30 p.m.

Everyone likes a good story with a new twist and that is just what Pat Edwards and Polly Ferrell have planned for the Manhatters Ladies Luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Thursday, June 9, in the Manhattan Room. The theme is "A Good Yarn."

Good yarns have been around since the beginning of time in all cultures. Yarns have been passed down from generation to generation. Today a good yarn is still enjoyed and treasured by everyone.

A tasty summer lunch menu is planned and will surely please your palate. It takes "two to tango" and also takes — or more — to spin a good yarn. You don't want to miss this one — a bargain at $8.

Sign up in the Blue Book located at the Hospitality Desk and we will see you at the lunch table.

Grief Support Group

Starting Tuesday, July 12, at 10:30 a.m.

Join Bridget Larkin, LMSW, Social Services Leader, and Patty Brown-Barnett, Chaplain, in a Grief Support Group from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. on Tuesday's starting July 12 through Sept. 27.

The Grief Support Group provides the opportunity to discuss grief and healing in a supportive environment. The group discussion will be guided by "Understanding Your Grief" by Alan D. Wolfelt, Ph.D. The cost of the book is $11. To RSVP or request additional information, please contact Bridget at (785) 323-3837 or at bridget.larkin@meadowlark.org.

Legislative Wrap-up

Saturday, June 11, at 9:30 a.m.

With the regular business of the Kansas Legislature now concluded, the League of Women Voters has planned a public meeting featuring local legislators, who will give their wrap-up comments on the 2016 session. All are welcome

The meeting will be held in the Community Room. Coffee and donuts will be available at 9:30 a.m. and the presentations will begin at 10 a.m. Invited are Senator Tom Hawk and Representatives Ron Highland, Susie Swanson, Sydney Carlin and Tom Phillips.

Parking during Summerfest, June 3

Meadowlark Road will be blocked off from the fork to the Village Entrance all day Friday. If you have guests visiting, please make sure they are not parked in the visitor parking between 7 a.m. Friday, June 3, through noon Saturday, June 4.

Kansas City Royals vs. Cleveland Indians Baseball Game

Monday, July 18, at 7:15 p.m.

Meadowlark Hills currently has a tentative trip scheduled to the Kansas City Royals vs. the Cleveland Indians game at 7:15 p.m. Monday, July 18. This game should not be confused with the trip we are taking Thursday, Sept. 29, to the Royals vs. Minnesota Twins. Both trips include residents, staff and families.

If you are interested in attending the game in July, please sign up in the Blue Book located at the Hospitality Desk. In order to keep the group price of $29 per ticket, we will need at least 20 people signed up.

Cost for transportation will be based on the number of people we have attending as we will be using Meadowlark Transportation for this particular game. A decision to go forth with the trip or cancel will be based on the number of people signed up by Friday, July 1. If you have questions, please contact Monte Spiller at (785) 323-3801.

Water Maintenance, June 2

Maintenance will be shutting off the water at 2 p.m. today, June 2, to complete some maintenance work.

The water shutoff will affect the West Tower, Honstead, Sloan and everyone located in the West Village apartments. The work will be completed by 3 p.m.

Kansas Wheat Innovation Center Tour Wednesday, June 8, at 9:50 a.m.

Meadowlark Hills is taking a trip to the Kansas Wheat Innovation Center Wednesday, June 8. The group will have the opportunity to tour the complex's key features that includes several growth chambers, freezers and laboratory pods in which researchers are able to control the growth environment of wheat plants from emergence to maturity.

Four separate greenhouses have been built on the north side of the laboratory, one of which is air conditioned, allowing research to take place even in the middle of hot Kansas summers. The research facility is also home to some of the operations of K-State's world-renowned Wheat Genetics and Genomics Resource Center (WGGRC).

A sign up sheet is available at the Hospitality Desk in the Blue Book and the group will depart from the Village Entrance at 9:50 a.m. The cost for transportation is $3 per person.

Craig Plotner Friday, June 10, at 7 p.m.

Coming to you from Lucas, Kansas...Craig has been singing and playing guitar for groups throughout the United States for many years. Growing up in southern California and Arizona, Craig has found Kansas to contain everything he wants.

Sharing his music throughout many Kansas communities for the past 8 years, he will be here to take your requests from his extensive song list and introduce you to some of his own music creations.

For a fun night of great music and interaction, join us at 7 p.m. Friday, June 10, in the Community Room.

LETTER TO THE MESSENGER

Many Thanks!

Submitted by Sheldon Edelman

Many thanks to all who came to my birthday party on May 29, and also thanks to the many residents who sent such nice cards.

I did not expect that there would be so many who would be present. I am humbled and grateful for the strong support by my fellow residents. I hope that I will be able to reciprocate.

Outdoor Encounters

Submitted by Nathan Bolls

Some days just sort of go along. Others are spectacular. Yesterday, for me, was a spectacular. No, I was not preoccupied with the colorful botanical effulgence that newly surrounds us.

I got to spend three hours watching dead trees! Concerning fallen trees, John Muir, the naturalist, explorer, and writer of Yosemite Valley fame, once remarked that "The burial of a tree is a beautiful thing." But let's begin with the standing dead.

Guess I should explain lest more of you than at present begin to think that my elevator doesn't stop at every floor. A dead tree, the bigger the better, the deader the better, constitutes a very special microhabitat.

In the dead-and-loose-bark stage, numerous small creatures, including tree frogs, hide behind the bark for shelter, or maybe even for overwintering. Various insects drill holes in dead wood in which to deposit eggs, or maybe just in under a patch of loose bark. And who hasn't watched woodpeckers and nuthatches pecking their way along dead trunks and limbs in search of buried larvae?

Some birds nest in dead trunk holes. Squirrels may dig out a shelter cavity. Although the large pileated woodpecker sometimes is seen in eastern Kansas, I have not yet seen, in any of our dead trees, the large characteristic oval-shaped holes they peck out in the trunks. Fungi have a field day.

And when a dead tree falls, many sorts of more terrestrially-minded critters make homes either underneath or by burrowing into the log. Fungi and microbes switch into over-drive. Female carpenter ants burrow out huge chambers for either food storage or shelter.

But (time for a commercial), I ask the physical plant crew to aid in keeping our standing dead standing for as long as possible. If it seems that the potential falling of one of our trees may put someone in harm's way, please don't just cut it down. Try to run wire or cable from ground up onto the tree so that it will--in its time-fall harmlessly away from some trail or bench. They all will fall soon enough; and please don't haul them away.

Dead trees, both standing and down, add an important patch to the quilt of biodiversity we wish to nurture in our MLH Natural Area. And a healthy biodiversity, as argued by the famous conservationist, Aldo Leopold, yields not just land, but "community!"

Continued, Legacy Society Awards

The Good Samaritan Fund benefitted significantly for several years from the Hawleys' generosity, and various Meadowlark Hills endeavors benefitted from Evelyn's talents and energy. She delivered the weekly Messenger to cottage residents, served refreshments at Coffee Corner, developed a bluebird trail on campus, helped staff prepare promotional items for mailing and hand-addressed invitations to our community events.

Other award winners include Pam Oehme, who received the Margaret Wheat Spirit of Meadowlark Hills Award; First Baptist Church, the Good Samaritan Award recipient, and the Rev. Cam McConnell, who received the Joanna Lyle Excellence in Service Award.

The spirit award honors a resident who embodies the spirit and person-directed culture of Meadowlark Hills. Pam's previous work at Meadowlark Hills as a nurse, her dedication to family members who previously lived at Meadowlark and her and her husband, Fred's, varied charitable giving through Meadowlark Hills Foundation caught the attention of the Foundation's Board of Directors. "A resident's disability or address isn't a barrier to her interest in his or her well-being," noted Terry Arthur during the event.

First Baptist Church, one of Meadowlark Hills' six founding churches, has offered support and guidance since before the community's grand opening in 1980. In addition to providing office space for early administrators, hymnals for our first worship services and leaders for 30-plus years of Vespers, the church has faithfully donated more than $15,000 to the Good Samaritan Fund since 1999.

Cam McConnell, senior pastor at the First Presbyterian Church, was unable to attend the event, so the Rev. Kati Collins accepted the service award on his behalf. For about 16 years, Rev. McConnell has facilitated a discussion group at Meadowlark Hills called "Newspaper & Bible", and he's officiated at Meadowlark Hills' Sunday evening service one month annual for 15 years.

Slightly more than 100 residents, staff, current and former board members and Legacy Society members attended this year's event, which was held at the Bluemont Hotel. The Legacy Society includes those who have named Meadowlark Hills Foundation as a recipient of charitable giving through estate planning. Also, the Society welcomes donors who have given one-time or cumulative gifts which total $25,000 or more.

Dr. Michael Wesch, associate professor of cultural anthropology at K-State, was the banquet speaker. For the past few spring semesters, Wesch's undergraduate students have lived at Meadowlark Hills. He discussed the positive relationships students and residents have forged and shared a digital game and video students created after learning about the previous and current life experiences of residents.

If you'd like to know more about becoming a Legacy Society member, please contact Becky Fitzgerald, Development Director, at 323-3843.

ASK SARAH

Let's go bring back summer!

Submitted by Sarah Duggan

One of my favorite Disney movies is Frozen. If you haven't seen it, Frozen is the story of a newly crowned Queen Elsa, who accidently uses her power to turn things into ice, which ends up cursing her home in infinite winter. Elsa's sister, Anna, teams up with a mountain man, his playful reindeer and a snowman to save the kingdom. Olaf the snowman is undoubtedly my second favorite character in the film (Second to Queen Elsa!) and he doesn't have any experience with the season of summer. As they set off to find Queen Elsa, he gleefully cheers, "Let's go bring back summer!"

It's time again for Meadowlark Hills to welcome summer in our own tradition – Summerfest!

Please join me at 5 p.m. Friday, June 3, for our annual block party. The food line, inflatables, sno-cone stand, beer garden and game stations will be set up across the lawn and the street between the main entrance and the fork in the road at Meadowlark Valley. Dinner will begin at 5 p.m. and at 6 p.m., the music will start. The band, the Santiago Brothers, will join us for two hours of musical entertainment!

The road will be blocked off from the fork off the south drive to the Village Entrance all day on Friday, June 3. If you have guests visiting, please make sure they are not parked in the visitor parking after 7 a.m. on Friday. The rented items for the party will be delivered and set-up during the morning hours.

All rental items will be retrieved by the company in the morning on Saturday, June 4.

If you have questions regarding this year's Summerfest, please contact me at (785) 323-3860. See you tomorrow (fingers crossed for beautiful weather!) – and thanks for stopping by!

Osher Informational Meeting Monday, June 6, at 10 a.m.

Registration for Summer 2016 Osher Lifelong Learning Program in Manhattan is now open. The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Kansas has teamed up with Kansas State University to bring to the Manhattan area the diverse content, innovative learning opportunities and quality faculty that promote lifelong learning in the community. The program in Manhattan is coordinated by UFM Community Learning Center.

The Osher Institute offers courses for participants age 50 and over that stress the joy of learning. Instructors are carefully selected for their expertise, a passion for the topic and a love of teaching. Courses generally meet weekly for two hours over a three-week period and require no homework, out-of-class preparation or testing.

UFM Coordinator, Charlene Brownson, will be at Meadowlark Hills at 10 a.m. Monday, June 6, in the KSU Classroom for spring Osher registration sign up. To enroll please do one of the following:

- Complete the form included in the summer catalog
- Call KU Osher toll-free (877) 404-5823 or (785) 864-5823

Texas adventure promises holiday sights and sounds

Submitted by Becky Fitzgerald

Holiday LIGHTS! Bring your CAMERAS! A variety of ACTION awaits when the Meadowlark Hills Travelers visit Oklahoma City and the Grapevine, Texas, area in early December. A five-day/four-night tour planned for Nov. 30 through Dec. 4 has been designed to put you in the holiday spirit by enticing your five senses. There will be twinkling lights and holiday exhibits to see, live performances to hear, locally made food and wine to smell and taste – Grapevine is aptly named! – and artisanmade items to touch.

While in Grapevine, known as the Christmas Capital of Texas, we'll enjoy a Christmas Murder Mystery Dinner at Texas Star Theatre; a guided bus tour of Historic Downtown Grapevine; the amazing ICE! Exhibit at the Gaylord Texan resort, and more. Free time to pursue downtown's shops and galleries has been built into the itinerary.

In addition, we'll visit Myriad Botanical Gardens and Crystal Bridge Tropical Conservatory in Oklahoma City and the Stockyards in Fort Worth plus drive through a 2-mile-long display of dazzling lights in Grand Prairie, Texas.

What's a holiday trip without time for Christmas shopping? Our hotel in Texas is Hyatt Place at Grapevine Mills, an indoor mall with 180 options for shopping, entertainment and eating. An afternoon has been set aside for travelers who'd enjoy some retail therapy. (See Page 9 for photos of attractions, etc.)

Keeping the comfort of our travelers in mind, the first day of the trip features a lunch stop and an attraction stop prior to checking in to the Embassy Suites just south of Oklahoma City. We'll be in plenty of time for the complimentary Manager's Reception that evening. The next morning, we'll enjoy a breakfast buffet at the hotel before departing for Grapevine, a short three hours away.

With a minimum of 25 travelers, cost is $1,358 for single occupancy, $1,038 per person for double occupancy and $958 per person for triple occupancy. With a minimum of 30 travelers, the cost per person decreases, so please share this opportunity with your friends. A deposit of $200 per person is due with your registration. Please see Monte Spiller or ask at the Hospitality Desk for a registration form.

The trip fee includes motor coach transportation; hotel accommodation and baggage handling for four nights; 12 meals; all attractions and guides' gratuity. Bus driver's gratuity is not included. Questions? Please contact Monte at 323-3801.
