Arts in the Park

Featuring folk and country trio: The Good Lovelies

Friday, July 22, at 7:30 p.m.

Arts in the Park will be hosting JUNO and four-time CFMA Award Winners, The Good Lovelies, a Toronto folk trio, at 8 p.m. Friday, July 22, at the Larry Norvell Band Shell in City Park.

The Good Lovelies: Caroline Brooks, Kerri Ough and Sue Passmore, make three-part harmonies divinely — all sun, serotonin and retro-radio. As described by The Globe Review, “The Good Lovelies are a daydream, a distraction, a wish for sweeter music.”

The trio has developed and expanded their sound as musicians first and as Good Lovelies second. Their song lyrics are crafted to exercise some autonomy from the confines of genre and tradition.

The Good Lovelies will be showcasing songs from their newest album, Burn the Plan, a long-awaited new album fulfilling and defying their so-called destiny as a “folk trio.” Burn the Plan brings winsome songwriting, impeccable vocals and triangulated charisma.

Transportation is available and will cost $3, but admission is free!

Transportation will depart from the Village Entrance at 7:30 p.m. Please register in the Blue Book located at the Hospitality Desk for transportation to this event.

SOCIAL MEDIA CLASSES

WITH CEIANNA TAYLOR

Starting Tuesday, Aug. 2, at 6:30 p.m.

Ceianna Taylor, a Senior at Rock Creek High School will be giving three instructional classes over the use of social media and how Facebook can be used to enhance connectivity with family and friends. Ceianna has been volunteering at Meadowlark Hills over the summer and has become a regular at Bingo!

The first class, “Introduction to Social Media” will be from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 2, in the KSU Classroom. The class will cover signing up for a Facebook account, basic security settings, “friends”, posting and viewing family and friends content.

The second class, “Intermediate Social Media” will be from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 4, in the KSU Classroom and is intended for those who already have a knowledge of what Facebook is and possibly already have an account but barely use it, or would like tips on how to make better use of it to communicate and keep up with friends and family or search for and connect with others.

Class three, “Advanced Social Media” will be from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 10, in the Living Room. This class is intended for those who regularly use Facebook and would like to know about more recent features and additions to the platform as well as get an introduction to Skype. The advanced class will also touch on Facebook video, advanced security settings and much more!

Classes one and two are limited to 15 participants and class three is limited to ten. Please sign up in the Blue Book located at the Hospitality Desk to attend one of the classes. There will be up to ten iPads available for use during the class and attendees are encouraged to bring their own devices.

Trip to Wichita Art Museum

Thursday, July 28, at 8 a.m.

Meadowlark Hills will be taking a group to travel to the Wichita Art Museum Thursday, July 28. The Wichita Art Museum brings people, ideas and American Art together to enrich lives and build community.

While in the museum, the group will have the opportunity to experience collections of wonderful artwork, including one of its highlighted exhibits, the "Chihuly Drawings."

Dale Chihuly, an American sculptor, has mastered the alluring, translucent and transparent qualities of ice, water, glass and neon to create works of art that transform the viewer experience. He is globally renowned for his ambitious site-specific architectural installations in public spaces and in exhibitions presented in more than 250 museums and gardens worldwide. The Wichita Art Museum boasts two large-scale works by the artist, Confetti Chandelier and Persian Seaform Bridge in the S. Jim and Darla Farha Great Hall. This exhibition includes drawings from across the artist's career — with work in pencil, charcoal and acrylic.

Our group will depart from the Village Entrance at 8 a.m., expecting to arrive at the museum by 10 a.m. Lunch will be paid on your own at the Muse Café, located in the museum. Cost for the trip is $35, which includes transportation and museum admissions. A sign-up sheet is available in the Blue Book located at the Hospitality Desk. Questions can be directed to Monte Spiller at 323-3801.

July Magic

Submitted by Sarah Duggan

If I am going to be completely honest, my favorite season is autumn (I love that word – so much more appealing to me than fall), however, summertime holds a special place in my heart. I still get excited as the summer season approaches, probably because it reminds me of when I was a kid and school was about to be out for two and half months. But the best thing about summer was always the Franklin County Fair.

The Franklin County Fair is always in July – the hottest part of the season. That didn't stop me or my 4-H Club cohorts (the Rambling Ranchers!) from spending every day out at the fairgrounds with the livestock, carnival, fried food and every single person that lived in town. As a 4-H-er, our fair “week” started early as we got our projects completed, entered and judged. One of my favorite projects I participated in was Rabbits. More than once I got a purple in showmanship (yes, you can show a rabbit) and I was over the moon about it.

This week is the Riley County Fair and I am looking forward to taking my family out to see the animals, maybe ride a couple rides and eat a corndog or pulled pork sandwich. I am especially excited to check out all the projects the area 4-H-ers worked so hard completing. If you can stand the heat (over 100 degrees, yikes!) – then I hope to see you around the fairgrounds!

See you next week, thanks for stopping by!
