

LAST Chance!

Final full weekend to shop furniture and fabulous finds submitted by Becky Fitzgerald, Development Director

The Meadowlark Market will be open for one more full weekend this month. Stop by and shop for seasonal items, mid-century furniture, and appliances. The Market will be open Friday, Sept. 27, and Saturday, Sept. 28, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., and Sunday, Sept. 29, from noon to 4 p.m. The Market is located at 1217 Meadowlark Cir.

Not only has our new Market project provided support for the Good Samaritan Fund, it has created widespread effects to the Manhattan and Meadowlark community. Customers at Meadowlark Market were inspired by the cause and decided to get more information about becoming a volunteer. One customer applied for a job at Meadowlark. Another Market shopper is now interested in knowing more about living at Meadowlark. Most of our customers don't live or work at Meadowlark. People are being introduced to Meadowlark, our residents, and our charitable mission by the Market!

If you have been a donor or shopper for the Market, we appreciate your generosity and support throughout our first year.

In addition to September's dates, Meadowlark Market will be open Friday Oct. 25, for Halloween and Thanksgiving items, and Friday, Nov. 22 for Christmas items.

Ozark Mountain Christmas

submitted by Becky Fitzgerald

A four-day/three-night get-away to America's Christmas Tree City, Branson, Mo. is set for Dec. 2 to 5. Live music, a city tour, shopping opportunities, and a dinner theatre performance are just part of the plan.

Our hotel: Just 10-miles from downtown Branson, Chateau on the Lake is Branson's only AAA Four Diamond resort. This modern-day "Castle in the Ozarks" welcomes guests with upscale resort amenities, friendly Midwestern hospitality and spectacular lakefront views.

Our shows: Branson's Sight and Sound Theater features a 300-foot stage that surrounds the audience on three sides, state-of-the-art technology and live animals. We'll see The Miracle of Christmas. After decades of crushing Roman rule, the Hebrew people are losing hope. When will the promised Messiah come? Into the midst of this turmoil, young Mary is told she will miraculously bear God's son.

We'll also hear beloved Christmas songs and carols during the Brett Family Christmas Show! at Dick Clark's American Bandstand Theatre, and Hughes Brothers Christmas Show at Hughes Brothers Celebrity Theater. The five singing and dancing Hughes brothers are 10-time winners of the Best (Branson) Christmas Show award.

At "Murder by Eggnog," an interactive mystery show, we'll combine good food and big laughs. The action takes place at Grand Majestic Dinner Theater. More than 12 roles in this show are filled by audience members. Will a Meadowlark Traveler be part of the action?

Our tours/attractions: What's a Meadowlark Travelers adventure without an interesting historical driving tour? We've hired a guide to point out places of interest as he tells us the story of the early settlers and those the first started and helped shape the music industry in Branson.

What's a holiday tour without oodles of twinkling lights? Branson's Gift of Lights is a magical mile that might be the brightest drive-thru attraction you've ever seen.

Other tour stops are St. James Winery and Titanic Museum. At Titanic, we'll experience the ship's grand staircase and view 400 artifacts directly from the ship and its passengers.

Meadowlark Travelers will have time to explore the shops at Branson Landing and the booths at Branson Craft Mall.

Cost per person based on double occupancy is $950. Rates also are available for single and triple occupancy. In addition to motor coach transportation and three nights lodging, the fee includes nine meals, eight shows/attractions and luggage handling.

A deposit of $250 is due with your reservation. Please complete a registration form located in the Blue Book at the Hospitality Desk. A minimum of 25 paid travelers are required to guarantee the $950 fee.

For questions, please contact Monte Spiller at (785) 323-3801.

On More on the Dime Store

submitted by Helen Roser

There were rewards beyond our twenty cents an hour pay working at the S.S. Kresge dime store. I worked during our Easter vacation from high school, during the Great Depression.

I "worked the floor" (meaning all counters) and was with the manager as he prepared to close the store when she came. Tearful, the little elderly lady held something that was wrapped in a towel.

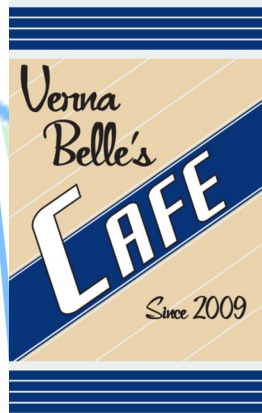

She said: "My iron! It is broken! I make my living ironing at the girls' school. I am sorry to be late, but I walked."

The girls' school was three miles away. She had walked. A bus chip cost ten cents or two for fifteen cents. She was trying to save money.

The manager told her: "Miss Newman will help you." I lead her to the electric counter and looked at her iron. No problem. Its plug was broken. I told her: "The plug is broken. A new one will cost ten cents, and I will put it on for you."

Crying profusely, she God-blessed me over and over as I put the new plug on. I accepted her ten cents, rang it up, and wrapped up her iron in its towel and handed it to her, saying: "Thank you for bringing your iron to us so we could help you." That brought more tears and God-blessing me again.

I loved working at the dime store.
