

I'm Thankful For...

"Just a few people that I'm thankful for." -Sarah Duggan (in middle) with Michelle Haub, Michele Riter, Chris Nelson, and Jayme Minton

by Sarah Duggan, Community Relations Director
Edward and I love to host a party. We don't typically get to be the destination for holidays so last year we took matters into our own hands and held our first-ever Friendsgiving celebration.

Friendsgiving is just like Thanksgiving only the guests are typically your friends and neighbors. Last year we hosted two sets of neighbors and this year we grew by two more families! Friendsgiving was last Saturday. We shared great food, delicious drinks, and several fun games. But we have even more joy to share this year. My family has agreed to come to Manhattan for Thanksgiving! So this Thursday, we'll be prepping our second turkey of the season, whipping up some fall sangria, and yummy side dishes. The Duggans can't wait to have a full house of the Guge family, which fills me with a genuine thankfulness.

Thanksgiving is exciting for Murphy because she has a full week off from school. Thanksgiving is exciting for Eilish because she loves a good party.

Thanksgiving for me is the wonderful middle of the holiday season, which starts for me on Halloween. I love the gatherings, the food, and the time with people I enjoy. Although I feel that I am thankful year round, Thanksgiving is a great opportunity to acknowledge all of our blessings. I am thankful for my family and our health. I'm thankful for a job I love that challenges me to grow and supports my success. I am thankful for the opportunity to build genuine and lasting relationships in the course of my days. I'm thankful for friends. I'm thankful for faith. I'm thankful for the ability to help others.

I wish you the happiest of Thanksgivings. Life is always changing.

Happy Feet for Christmas

submitted by Polly Ferrell

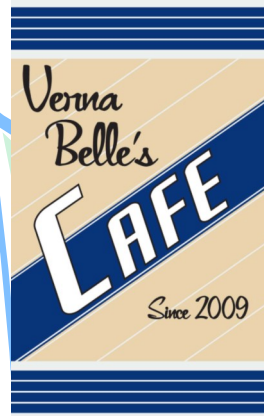

Winter temperatures are on the way and for families in financial distress this can mean children and adults are left with cold feet. The Meadowlark Ladies Luncheon group is gathering donations for a Happy Feet for Christmas project. Our goal is to give the Manhattan Emergency Shelter at least 50 pairs of colorful festive Slipper Socks with treaded soles to be shared with those in need.

Fifty pairs of socks of all sizes, cost approximately $150, on average $3 a pair. We invite all Meadowlark residents to help us achieve our goal. As of Friday, Nov. 22, we have received $62. You may add your dollars to the Happy Feet for Christmas jar located at the Hospitality Desk. No checks please, cash donations are preferred.
