

Happy National Volunteer Week!

by Jana Armfield, Volunteer Engagement Specialist

Did you know this week (April 18-24) is National Volunteer Week? Meadowlark is blessed to have an amazing team of volunteers whom we are thrilled to have back on campus and have greatly missed! We want to take time this week to thank them and recognize their time and talents!

Meadowlark had 126 dedicated volunteers, including residents and community members, between September 2019 through February of 2020. During that time, a total of 1,206 hours were served. This equates to $30,682.56, according to Independent Sector.org, which places the value of a volunteer in 2019 at $25.43 per hour. The generosity of our volunteers is truly inspiring, and we appreciate all they do!

What's New? Prairie Star Restaurant and our Chef team are busy creating our new culinary menu that will be released in June 2021. To support the creative efforts and endeavors, Prairie Star will be utilizing a reduced menu featuring our favorites items. A daily lunch and dinner special will continue to be offered until the new menu is released. See Page 8 for the updated restaurant menu, signature drink list, pub pricing, and new breakfast specials.

Pig Out for Parkinson's is set for 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Thursday, April 29, just west of the KSU Foundation building at Rockin K's, 1880 Kimball Ave.

Long-time Pig Out supporters Bud and Bobby Cox have joined forces with Rockin K's owner Scott Sieben to sponsor this 11th annual event at a new location. A portion of the day's sales, including dine-in and carry-out meals and beverages, benefit Meadowlark Parkinson's Program.

Parkinson's Program leaders and participants are excited to see you at Rockin K's next Thursday, but if you're not able to attend in person, you may still participate by purchasing a meal or meals, using the order form included in today's Messenger. Meadowlark Ambassadors Janice Parsons and Kay Shanks have volunteered to pick up your orders and deliver to Meadowlark, where additional volunteers will sort and deliver the packaged meals to your door. Lunch orders are expected to arrive at your home between 11:45 a.m. and noon. Dinner orders are expected to arrive between 5:45 and 6 p.m. There is no fee for this service!

New to Pig Out is a specialty cocktail named for Parker, the Pig Out mascot. Parker's Punch, a delicious concoction of citrus vodka, cranberry juice and pink lemonade, is available when dining at Rockin K's, or may be ordered to-go with either lunch or dinner. Find it on the order form under the dinner option. Cost is just $5. Parker's Punch will arrive with delivered meals in a capped plastic bottle, so some or all may be enjoyed at a later time.

Please return your completed form to the Hospitality Desk by noon on Tuesday, April 27. If you place an order using this form, there is no need to go to Rockin K's to pick up your meal. Our Ambassadors have got you covered!

On Blanch Gets Married

by Helen Roser

The wedding, when Blanch got married to Eddie, was a top-drawer, fancy affair. The gang who Eddie hardly ever saw anymore, were not invited.

Of course that called for a joke. Once again, sisters of the gang helped. They baked a really awful looking cake. It was lop-sided, with icing missing in parts.

The plan was that the gang, who weren't invited, would crawl in Blanch's wedding place and steal the big fancy wedding cake. They would put the lop-sided mess in its place.

Blanch's father thought she should have invited the gang. Not only because they were Eddie's friends, but because he had a feeling the gang would do something awful because they weren't invited.

But Blanch wouldn't take her father's advice and invite the gang.

So, just when the big event was going on, Blanch's father caught the gang just as they were getting ready to take the fancy cake out the window and bring the awful one in.

The gang apologized. Blanch's father said he understood. He invited the gang to come in later and have some cake. They weren't dressed up, but they went anyway.

Eddie was so glad to see them. His new father-in-law was really nice to Eddie and his friends.

Florence Hope Schwab, former resident

Florence (Oberg) Schwab, age 90, passed away peacefully at Lakewood Reserve Senior Living in Lakewood, Colo. on March 31, 2021, with family by her side.

Florence's family expressed gratitude for the many good years she had living at Meadowlark. When she moved to Meadowlark, Florence was still driving her favorite Sebring convertible, and dressing in glamorous colorful clothes. Her signature red lipstick, red furniture, and flare for decorating was well known. She began writing poetry and essays while at Meadowlark, which her family will treasure.

The Schwab family also shared their sincere thanks and love to the many caregivers involved in Florence's care. Florence wished to be cremated, and her remains will be laid to rest at Manhattan Sunrise Cemetery during a small graveside service in Manhattan, Kan. No date has been determined at this time.

Art Engagement from the Beach Museum of Art

Emphasis is a principle of design that artists use to draw the viewer's attention to the focal point or main subject of the artwork. An artist may use several techniques to accomplish emphasis. The strategic placement or size of the object would bring attention to it. The use of contrast in color, value or texture can also heighten the viewer's awareness of a focal point. Repetition is another element the artist might employ to bring emphasis to an object. Any one or all of these elements can be used in a single composition.

As you enjoy this print from our collection what is the focal point of the piece? What techniques did the artist use to bring emphasis to the object?
