

It's a Mystery!

Murder Mystery Dinner Theater comes to Meadowlark

You're invited to a Murder Mystery Dinner Theater event in Prairie Star's Event Center during the evening hours of Thursday, Oct. 27. The program features Levity Players Group, an interactive and family-friendly murder mystery dinner theater group that performs in Kansas and Missouri.

Attend the event to enjoy a comedic and satirical, but not gory, story about a doctor who has made a fortune treating those afflicted with Zombieitis. He speaks to enlighten people regarding his unusual treatment methods. Then, someone goes to that great doctor's waiting room in the sky, and a psychiatrist-police detective is called to make sense of the situation.

Seating will open at 5 p.m., and the meal begins at 6 p.m. Reservations are required and the cost is $60 per person. To reserve your seat, please call (785) 323-3821.

The menu will feature an amuse bouche of Boursin cheese topped with caramelized onions and bacon served with herbed flatbread, followed by a mixed greens salad with crispy prosciutto and candied nuts served with apple-cider vinaigrette. The entrée is a chicken pot pie with roasted chicken, vegetables, and a flaky pastry crust served in an individual-size acorn squash with fresh green beans tied together with leeks. Pumpkin cheesecake with homemade caramel sauce will follow for dessert.

If you have questions regarding this spooky event, contact Dining Services at (785) 323-3821.

EVENTS & OPPORTUNITIES

Campus Maintenance

A company will be at Meadowlark from Oct. 31 through Nov. 4 to clean drying ducts. They are planning to complete first, second, and third floor of the east tower on Monday, Oct. 31, and Tuesday, Nov. 1. Next, duplexes 2010 through 2152 and Meadowlark Circle will be completed Wednesday, Nov. 2, and Thursday, Nov. 3. On Friday, Nov. 4, we plan to complete duplexes 2231 through 2263. We will need to enter apartments to complete this work. If you aren't home and don't want the team to enter, then please contact Mike Davis, Environmental Services Leader, at (785) 323-3851.

Soffit replacement on the East tower began Thursday, Oct. 6. This project will take approximately three to four weeks to complete, weather-dependent. Workers will be on lifts outside of residents' windows.

Soon, the retaining wall outside of Lyle House will be replaced. The sidewalk and parking lot will be closed when the work is being completed. There is no start date scheduled yet—more information to come.

Employee Gift Fund

submitted by Resident Employee Gift Committee

Meadowlark is a successful welcoming community. Staff members play an important role in achieving and maintaining success. Residents, Passport members, and friends are given the opportunity to thank employees by giving to the Employee Gift Fund.

The value of that help is a determination each person must make. The committee is continually asking everyone connected to Meadowlark to help build the fund, which will be divided to staff based on the hours worked in the past year. Examine your ability to give and then send your check to show your appreciation.

Time for a Flu Shot!

The leaves are changing, the air is turning crisp, and the next stop is flu season, and even better, flu shots! If you are a current patient of CenterPointe Physicians at the Meadowlark Clinic, you're invited to call (785) 537-1900 and schedule a time to receive your flu shot.

If you aren't a CenterPointe patient, please contact your primary care doctor to schedule a flu shot. Immunizations also are available at many local pharmacies.

Exercise classes, canceled

Rock Steady Boxing is canceled for Wednesday, Oct. 19, and all exercise classes will be canceled on Thursday, Oct. 20. In-person classes will resume Friday, Oct. 21. See page 11 for virtual class times on Channel 1960.

Around the World in 1800: UFM Class

Thursday, Oct. 13, at 6:30 p.m.

Enrollment is now open and can be completed by calling (785) 539-8763.

Annual Clothing Drive

Tuesday, Oct. 18, at 10 a.m.

It's time for the Ambassadors' Annual Clothing Drive! Meadowlark Ambassadors will be available to sort and package clothing and greet donors from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 18, in the Flint Hills Room. This year, donations will benefit The Budget Shop. This organization is one of four local community not-for-profit thrift stores that accepts vouchers given to clients by other social service agencies in town.

The Budget Shop disperses the funds that are generated from its sales to local community organizations such as the Flint Hills Community Clinic, Shepherd's Crossing, Manhattan Emergency Shelter, and The Crisis Center.

Residents who live in the apartment towers are encouraged to drop off clothing donations in the Flint Hills Room on the day of the event, as well as any interested Passport members and employees. Cottage/duplex residents may call the Hospitality Desk in advance to arrange a time to pick up their item(s) on the day of the event. Items must be clean and in either new or gently-used condition. Contact Jana, Engagement Specialist, for any questions at (785) 323-3890.

The Wizard of Oz: UFM Class

HOGtoberfest + Cash & More Raffle

by Becky Fitzgerald, Development Director

Mark your calendars to join us between the hours of 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 27. Ten percent of the day's proceeds will be donated to the Good Samaritan Fund, so plan now to enjoy lunch or dinner at Draft House that day. Meadowlark residents also may order food for delivery for either lunch or dinner. An order form will be included in the Oct. 20 Messenger.

If dining at Draft House, a popular pulled pork and chicken slider buffet is available from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. From 5 to 8 p.m., enjoy the whole hog roast buffet – What's HOGtoberfest without a hog roast? – complete with sides (baked beans, creamy coleslaw, and redskin potato salad) and apple cobbler for dessert. In addition, the Kite's Bar & Grill menu will be available throughout the day. The Bar & Grill offers burgers, dawgs, and wraps, as well as soups, salads, and specialties, such as chicken fried steak, and spicy shrimp.

To add to the festive atmosphere at Draft House, Central National Bank will operate its Cash Cube from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., and Tallgrass Tunsmiths will entertain from 6 to 8 p.m. At lunchtime, event-goers will be able to reach into the Cash Cube to grab blowing cash and prize coupons. Those who attend in the evening will hear an energetic group of four Kansans who play accordion, bass, guitar, clarinet, mandolin, and melodica. The band promises to keep the atmosphere lively with polkas, folk music, oldies, and other music fitting a fall Oktoberfest-style party.

As referenced above, there's a way to get into the HOGtoberfest spirit prior to the big day: purchase Cash & More Raffle tickets. For $5 a ticket, buyers will have the opportunity to win the following prizes: 1st prize: $2000 cash; 2nd prize: $500 shopping spree at Meadowlark Market; 3rd prize: gift cards from Blueville Nursery with a total value of $300; and 4th prize: $50 gift cards for Kite's Aggieville Draft House, Mr. K's, and Rockin K's.

Purchase a winning ticket TODAY at the Hospitality Desk, at Verna Belles' Café, online at meadowlark.org by clicking the HOGtoberfest button, or by contacting a Meadowlark board member.

All proceeds support the Good Samaritan Fund, which assists residents in a Meadowlark healthcare household who have outlived their financial resources. The Fund bridges the gap between reimbursement from the state of Kansas and the cost of quality care and life enhancement. In addition to Kite's Aggieville Draft House and Central National Bank, Meadowlark Foundation appreciates the continued generous support of McCullough Development, BHS Construction, Blueville Nursery, Burnett Automotive, and Flint Hills Beverage.

LEADER OF THE PACK

Meadowlark's Leader of the Pack for October is Ashlyn Spomer, a CNA in Collins House! Ashlyn had not one, not three, but FOUR nominations! Ashlyn comes in every day and exceeds expectations! She walks in with a smile, and always leaves with one, too. She has such a great relationship with all the residents in Collins House, where she goes above and beyond for them daily. Since transitioning to Collins House from Home Health, she took on a leadership role very quickly and is our 'go-to-girl' for training new aides. Everyone enjoys working with her; her energy is contagious. Ashlyn is dependable and is always picking up extra shifts. Congrats, Ashlyn! We are thankful to have you as a part of the Meadowlark team!

Shiva as Lord of Dance (Nataraja), 20th century

Cast bronze by lost wax

This rendition of Shiva was probably produced by one of the workshops in Swamimalai in southern India, a production hub for bronze sculptures of Hindu deities destined for temples, private collections, and the tourist trade. These workshops employ ancient techniques to this day.

KSU, Marianna Kistler Beach Museum of Art, gift of Dr. & Mrs. Albert B. Franklin, 1985.155

The Hindu god Shiva appears here in the form of Natarāja, Lord of Dance. Shiva watches over the endless cycle of time; this dance demonstrates that cycle. Starting in the Tenth Century, figures of Shiva are carried in processions through the streets watched by hundreds of people. (Please see below for the origin of the rendition shown here.) This sculpture symbolizes the cycle of destruction and rebirth of the universe. Shiva is encircled by a ring of fire that will destroy all in the end. One hand holds a small drum which maintains the rhythm of the dance. Another hand holds a small flame, denoting the power of destruction and creation. The hand with the palm up evokes protection. The hand pointing down draws our eye to the dwarf that Shiva is standing on, which represents ignorance. As you look closely at this sculpture what do you notice that would suggest this is a dance? You may view this Shiva on exhibit now at the Beach Museum of Art.
